[REDACTED] He also said several times that he thought we should have more precise understandings of the relationships between the Select Committee and the Agency so as to facilitate mutual trust and confidence. (I indicated that this had to go both ways.) The Senator and Elliff also stressed several times their concerns for the rights of Americans.

2. [REDACTED] The open budget issue was discussed and Senator Bayh did not give much credence to Ambassador Carlucci's concern for the "camel's nose under the tent theory."
